

I Know You're Awake

Travis was just a ten year old boy who wasn't scared of anything. Well, that's what he thought until the night of that horrible tragedy.

It was time for Travis to sleep and so he said goodnight to his parents and headed upstairs to his room "Goodnight, mom. Goodnight, dad", he said with a soft voice yawning.

When Travis entered his room, he found the window open. He reaches to close the window and climbs up on his bed. A few seconds later, he hears his parents coming up the stairs. His room was at the end of the hall and his door was opened halfway. Travis saw a shadow figure. He thought it was his parents coming up to check on him. But it wasn't.

"Ahhh!" screamed both his parents. Travis thought he was dreaming so he closed his eyes for a few seconds and when he opened his eyes, he saw his parents on the floor. DEAD! Blood was gushing out of them and at that moment, Travis realized the shadow came through his opened window. The shadow killed my parents he thought over and over again.

Travis went under his covers and pretended to be asleep. His eyes were closed but he was wide awake. The shadow crawled through under his bed and hid there the whole night. Travis heard the shadow going under his bed and was scared to death!

A few minutes before the sun came up, the shadow came from under the bed and said, "I know you're awake".
